Announcing CHIHUAHUAS de MAYO

Mega-Adoption
Event &
Chihuahua Races
Saturday, May 6,
2017
11 a.m. – 3 p.m.

San Luis Obispo, CA -- Woods Humane Society and San Luis Obispo County Animal Services are teaming up to present the annual Chihuahuas de Mayo on Saturday, May 6 at Woods Humane Society.

Chihuahuas de Mayo is a one-of-a-kind mega-adoption cooperative event featuring the breed most often overlooked and always overpopulated in shelters – Chihuahuas. The event includes discounted adoption fees, Chihuahua Races (Who is SLO County's Fastest Chihuahua?), Woods University obedience training demonstrations, Micro Chipping, Rabies Vaccination Clinic, food, entertainment, and a day to raise awareness about K9 overpopulation and the importance of spaying and neutering our pets.

“When you look at animal shelters across California they’re disproportionately filled with Pit Bulls, Pit Bull mixes and Chihuahuas. There’s no question about it, these are wonderful animals, but there are simply way more of them than there are homes. The intent of this event is to build awareness about the problem, encourage folks to spay and neuter their pets and to send as many dogs home with loving families as possible.” –Jill Tucker, Woods Humane Society’s Executive Director.

“Pit Bulls and Chihuahuas make up the majority of our shelter dog population on any given day. We follow the same trend as other open-door animal shelters in California that tend to see more Pit Bulls and Chihuahuas come in as either stray or owner surrender compared to other breeds of dogs. It’s a bit more difficult to promote the individuality of each animal when we have so many to choose from. Chihuahuas de Mayo will help us show how versatile and different each dog is so they can be truly appreciated.” – Andrea Liddie, SLO County Animal Services Shelter Supervisor

Chihuahuas de Mayo will start at 11:00 am and will run until 3pm. Chihuahuas de Mayo is proudly presented in association with our good friends at Spectrum Reach and the San Luis Obispo Country Animal Services Division.

Grab your Chihuahuas and bring them to the races for a day of family fun at Woods Humane Society! Visit woodshumane.org for more event information and schedule. Woods Humane Society is located at 875 Oklahoma Avenue in San Luis Obispo.
